WHY THIS COMMUNITY

Why this community

- Oldest private club in the city; predates every other La Quinta private.
- Walkable to Old Town and the Cove — unique among La Quinta privates.
- Multi-generational membership culture.
- Most accessible historical initiation tier among La Quinta privates — verify current.

THE GOLF

The Golf

Architect: Lawrence Hughes (1959).

Practical questions to ask on your first visit:

- Walk the routing — it is intentionally short and shaded.
- Ask about restoration history.

THE CLUB

The Club

Equity membership with active social and family programming. Confirm current initiation, dues, and waitlist directly.

No fee numbers are printed in this guide. Verify all financial terms directly with the membership office.

THE REAL ESTATE

The Real Estate

Most architecturally varied streetscape of the seven La Quinta privates. Mid-century single-story originals, classic Spanish-Mediterranean, and recent custom remodels. Mature landscaping is dominant.

WHO IT FITS

Who it fits

- Walkability-prioritizing primary or seasonal buyer
- Family / multi-generational buyer
- Mid-century / Old Town fabric enthusiast

NEXT STEPS

Next Steps

- Walk the neighborhood on a Saturday morning
