- Course: 18-hole private
- Style: Wide fairways, framed views
- Membership: Equity, by invitation
- Real estate: Custom estates on large lots

WHY THIS COMMUNITY

Why this community

- Fazio routing built around mountain view corridors rather than visual intimidation.
- Strict community design code keeps the streetscape architecturally cohesive.
- Small membership cap produces low tee-sheet pressure year-round.
- Privacy-first culture — no resort play, no daily-fee access, no marketed roster.

THE GOLF

The Golf

Architect: Tom Fazio.

Practical questions to ask on your first visit:

- Confirm tee-sheet booking windows for members and guests.
- Ask about caddie program scope and availability.
- Inspect the overseed transition timing for your travel calendar.

THE CLUB

The Club

Membership is equity and historically by invitation. Initiation, dues, and transfer terms are not publicly disclosed and change — confirm directly with the membership office.

No fee numbers are printed in this guide. Verify all financial terms directly with the membership office.

THE REAL ESTATE

The Real Estate

Lot sizes are large by Coachella Valley standards. Architectural language is dominated by contemporary California and modern Spanish-Mediterranean custom estates. No condos. No fairway villas. Inventory turns slowly — working with a California-licensed agent who has closed inside the community within the last two seasons is the practical baseline.

WHO IT FITS

Who it fits

- Snowbird buyer prioritizing privacy and architectural cohesion
- Primary-resident buyer wanting a Fazio routing with low daily play pressure
- Estate-scale buyer who values community design control

NEXT STEPS

Next Steps
